

AUDIOVISUAL MATERIAL & INTERACTIVE MEDIA POLICY

All of the library's audiovisual material and interactive media is available to everyone, regardless of age. At the written request of a parent/guardian, the library will attempt to restrict the borrowing privileges of a child under the age of 18 for this material. Our attempt to restrict audiovisual material and interactive media borrowing privileges is confined to Nanuet Public Library cardholders and Nanuet Public Library material. The ultimate responsibility, however, lies with the parent/guardian.

Policy adopted by the Board of Trustees, Nanuet Public Library, November 28, 2000

Policy revised June 23, 2009

Note to Parents:

You are the only individuals who may restrict your own children's access to library materials and services. Parents who would rather their children did not have access to certain materials should so advise their children. The library and its staff are responsible for providing equal access to library materials and services for all library users.
